

Via de Cristo Weekend Policies

As a Christian movement, the Via de Cristo community is called to live a life of service for Jesus Christ. To set an example for the believers in speech, in life, in love, in faith, and in prayer. To devote ourselves to the public reading of scripture, to preaching and to teaching. (Matthew 28: 19-20)

Do not neglect your gift nor cease to share it with the Christian church!

(Romans 12: 4-6) (1Corinthians 12)

Therefore on Via de Cristo weekends as well as all other Via de Cristo functions we have the following policies:

- No photography – other than the formal group photos.
- No non-prescription drugs, alcohol or inhalants
- No inappropriate physical contact.
- No profanity or pornography.
- No insults or rude behavior.
- Everyone contributes to the success of a weekend.
- Take the time to get to know someone new or that you don't know well and learn something new about them.
- Learn something new about yourself and allow God to grow and stretch you so you can experience His love in new ways.
- Love, Peace, Joy and Fun will be had by all.
- Stay focused on our Lord Jesus Christ.

Everyone on the Via de Cristo weekend, teams and weekenders alike will be given a chance to experience the Living Christ through excellent teachings, prayer, worship, and fellowship with brothers and sisters in Christ. It is our desire to show everyone that you can be a Christian and have great enjoyment and fun without compromising the Gospel.
